

Springs Awareness for Educators – Information, Resources and Conservation

Open to all K-12 educators – all subjects

At Rainbow Springs State Park in December 7, 2016 - 2 to 5 pm

(Additional information available in November of 2016)

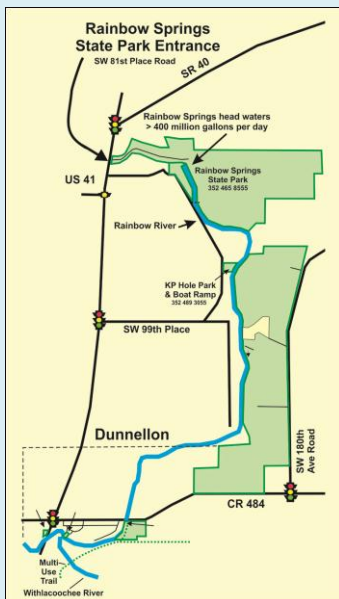

19158 S.W. 81st Place Road, Dunnellon, Florida 34432

No classroom can compare to this river for educational impact

- Presentation on Rainbow Springs from the Southwest Florida Water Management District and the Florida Springs Institute
- Attendance will qualify Marion County teachers for Master In-Service Points

Get classroom resources for Elementary, Middle & High School that address Florida Standards

- Receive free water test kits, publications for students, RRC videos on river life
- Learn how to lead your own field trip through hands-on dip netting & water testing
- Free light refreshments, free door prizes

This Open House is hosted by Rainbow River Conservation with co-sponsors

- Marion County, see Asst. Principal for Master In-Service Points
- Southwest Florida Water Management District
- Florida Springs Institute
- Rainbow Springs State Park
- Rainbow Springs Aquatic Preserve
- Friends of Rainbow Springs State Park

